

Preadmission Screening and Resident Review Information for Referring Entities

Preadmission Screening and Resident Review (PASRR) is a federally mandated program. Each state is required to comply with Code of Federal Regulations, Title 42, Part 483, Subpart C, to ensure that any individual seeking admission into a Medicaid-certified nursing facility or currently residing in such a facility is screened and evaluated for mental illness, intellectual disability, and developmental disabilities. The Code of Federal Regulations can primarily be found at:
